Lawyers had worries over Salmond case

SCOTTISH government lawyers had "reservations" about its court battle with Alex Salmond more than two months before it conceded the case.

Mr Salmond (above) said the government was told in October 2018 that it was likely to lose the case.

The government only admitted the following January that its investigation into complaints against Mr Salmond had been unlawful.

Deputy First Minister John Swinney has now admitted that concerns were raised.

But he insisted there were "good public policy arguments and reasonable grounds" to continue contesting the case.

The government ultimately had to pay Mr Salmond's legal fees of more than £500,000 on top of its own costs after admitting its investigation had been unlawful.

Energy firms to refund overcharged switchers

MORE than one million people were overcharged by energy firms during the process of switching suppliers, the regulator Ofgem has said.

Rules state customers should be protected from price rises while switching – which could take up to three weeks.

Eighteen suppliers – including British Gas, E.ON, EDF, Npower, Scottish Power, SSE and Octopus – made errors leading to overcharging of £7.2million.

They are refunding the money and making extra payments in some cases, taking the compensation total to £10.4m.

LEGEND ST JOHN DIES AGED 82

FORMER Liverpool and Scotland great Ian St John has died at the age of 82 after a long illness.

St John joined Liverpool from hometown team Motherwell in 1961 for a club record £37,500 and played 425 games for the Anfield side, scoring 118 goals, during a decade of service.

The forward won two top-flight titles and scored the decisive goal as Liverpool lifted their first FA Cup in 1965.

St John also earned 21 Scottish caps and managed Motherwell and Portsmouth.

He then enjoyed a successful career as a TV pundit, teaming up with former England striker Jimmy Greaves to front the hugely popular 'Saint and Greavsie' show which ran until 1992.

A statement from the St John family said: "It is with a heavy heart that we have to inform you that after a long illness we have lost a husband, father and grandfather."

Premier League champions

Liverpool said the club was "deeply saddened" by the loss of a "true Anfield legend".

St John's finishing prowess was evident from his early days at Motherwell, the club he had watched as a supporter lifting the Scottish Cup for the first time in 1952 before joining five years later.

His prolific scoring record earned him international recognition and a move to Liverpool under fellow Scot Bill Shankly, where he quickly became a fans' favourite.

It has gone down in Liverpool mythology that when the board were reluctant to spend a record fee on the player, Shankly's reply was: "We can't afford not to buy him."

Oxford and Pfizer vaccine data 'stunning'

REAL-world data on the effectiveness of the Oxford and Pfizer vaccines is "stunning" and countries across Europe will take note, a scientist behind one of the jabs has said.

Professor Andrew Pollard, director of the Oxford Vaccine Group, welcomed the new study from Public Health England which found that protection against developing symptomatic COVID-19 in the over-70s was around 60% for both Oxford and Pfizer after a single dose, while among the over-80s the vaccines offered more than 80% protection against hospital admission.

Prof Pollard (above) said the findings were "stunning" – and for two reasons.

"First of all, because these data come from the hardest group to protect – those who are the frailest, the oldest adults in our population – and we're seeing an 80% reduction in hospitalisation in that group, which is stunning," he said.

"Second, both of the vaccines performed exactly the same, there was no daylight between them."

Pandemic drives up supermarket sales

BRITONS have spent £15.2billion more on groceries during the pandemic as lockdowns and restrictions over the past year have forced the closure of bars, pubs and restaurants, new figures show.

Kantar grocery data revealed each household has spent around £4,800 in supermarkets over the past 12 months – £500 more than in normal times.

Supermarkets have seen trade boom amid the pandemic as they have been allowed to remain open, whereas other non-essential retailers and hospitality have been forced to close.

Supermarket sales rose by 12.5% in the 12 weeks to February 21 and growth ramped up to 15.1% over the past month.

OK RISHI...SO WHAT'S THE BAD NEWS?

Britain braced for Budget sting after giveaways leaked

BRITS are braced for a Budget sting in the tail when Rishi Sunak delivers his financial plans today.

The Chancellor has allowed news of bumper giveaways to be leaked in advance – leading to fears he has engaged in "news management" and is holding back the bad news for Budget day itself.

Among the baubles being dangled, business secretary Kwasi Kwarteng said business support – including furlough and the VAT cut for hospitality firms – will continue "while lockdown persists".

With COVID restrictions set to end by June at the earliest,

By SUZIE SHELTON
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Mr Kwarteng told the BBC it was important not to "crush" any potential recovery.

And there was "every chance" the economy would "bounce back" in the second half of the year, he added.

Among measures to be announced, he will extend the £20-a-week top up to universal credit for six months to help struggling households, government sources said.

Mr Sunak is also expected to allocate £408million to museums, theatres and galleries in England to help them reopen when COVID restrictions ease, while also pledging £150m to help communities take over pubs in danger of closing.

One insider said: "Millions to museums and extra money to the poor sounds very much like sugaring the pill in advance. "The country is in huge debt and that money has to be found from somewhere. I would not be surprised to see unwelcome tax hikes, maybe via a freezing of personal tax allowances."

Difficult

But the Chancellor faces a bust-up with some Tory MPs if he imposes tax increases, amid warnings they could stifle economic growth.

And Labour is urging him to abandon the planned council tax rises in England.

The Budget comes at a very difficult time for businesses and government finances.

Official figures show the UK economy contracted by 9.9% last year and unemployment rose to 5.1% in the three months to December – the worst rate since 2015.

With its takings down and spending up, the government is expected to borrow £394bn during the current financial year – the highest figure seen in peacetime.

The furlough scheme, currently paying up to 80% of six million people's salaries, is scheduled to stop at the end of April.

But the prime minister's "roadmap" for easing COVID restrictions says the final legal limits on social contact and business activity will end no earlier than June 21.

COVID DEATHS PLUNGE BY A QUARTER

THE number of weekly registered coronavirus deaths in England and Wales has fallen by more than a quarter to the lowest level since the start of the year, figures show.

There were 4,079 deaths registered in the week ending February 19 where COVID-19 was mentioned on the death certificate, the Office for National Statistics said.

This is down 28.3 per cent and the lowest number of weekly registered deaths since the week ending January 1.

The proportion of deaths that involved coronavirus has also fallen, from 37.1% to 29.5% in the latest period.

Overall, there were 13,809 deaths from all causes registered in the week ending February 19 – a 10% fall from the previous seven days.

There were 2,182 deaths above what would usually be expected for this week, based on the average over the past five years.

All regions of England recorded a week-on-week fall in the number of COVID-19 deaths registered in the week to February 19, the ONS added.

The South East saw the highest number of COVID-19 deaths registered (636), down 35% from 974 in the previous week.

SEXY Cara Delevingne thrilled her fans when she posted a topless-in-the-bath selfie on her social media.

The actress and model, 28, posted the racy snap on her Instagram account, where she has a staggering 43.4 MILLION followers.

Most comments that followed were highly complimentary about the stunning star, who has openly admitted to having relationships with both men and women.

But alas, once the chatter was picked up by the Daily Mail's website, its notorious commentators were out in force.

Some of the one-handed keyboard warriors seemed frantic to get their contentious messages across to the Brit-born beauty, whose family hails from aristocracy.

Joggers... wear mask so you don't pass on virus!

JOGGERS should wear a mask running past people to lessen the risk of passing on COVID.

Trish Greenhalgh, professor in primary care health sciences at the University of Oxford, told Good Morning Britain: "There is no doubt the virus is in the air, there is no doubt that you can

"The exercising jogger – the puffing and panting jogger – you can feel their breath come and you can sometimes actually feel yourself inhale it.

"So there's no doubt that there is a danger there."

Stormy: Nude Trump made me fearless!

PORN star Stormy Daniels says that NOTHING can scare her any more after seeing Donald Trump NAKED!

Another fan jokingly asked: “When you say horror movies do you mean Trump?” to which Stormy replied, “Well, after seeing him naked, nothing scares me!”

Her reply immediately went viral, with an array of reactions from people expressing their disgust and also sympathising with Daniels, who claims she had an affair with Trump in 2006.

One fan posted: “I’m surprised you can keep food down!”

Trump has always denied the affair.

Because the Beeb is bringing another of Normal People writer Sally Rooney's books to our screens. And according to sources, this one is JUST as dirty!

The cast has been revealed for the BBC adaption of Conversations with Friends – with Taylor Swift's boyfriend Joe Alwyn and Girls star Jemima Kirke set to star in the racy drama.

Joe, 29, and Jemima, 35, are among the actors to appear in the new series of Sally Rooney's 2017 book – which follows a mysterious and sexy married couple, Nick and Melissa, and their unusual attraction to two younger women, Frances and Bobbi.

Frances, who will be played by newcomer Alison Oliver, embarks on an erotic affair with Nick, while trying to reconcile her feelings for best friend and ex-girlfriend Bobbi, played by Utopia actress Sasha Lane, 25, whom she is in love with.

The novel is packed full of racy moments – just like Normal People, which wowed viewers with its intimate, realistic sex scenes.

Luckily, neither Joe, Jemima or Sasha are strangers to kinky sex scenes on screen, with all three actors having stripped off in previous roles.

Jemima rose to fame in the smash-hit series Girls, which was known for its no holds barred nudity and adult themes.

Romping

Her character Jessa was shown romping with Zachary Quinto and Adam Driver, walking around naked and masturbating.

American Honey star Sasha has done her fair share of sexy scenes as well.

The actress starred in the 2016 teen road dramedy as an Oklahoma runaway who falls in love with Shia LaBeouf.

Unlike the rest of the cast, little is known about Alison's lead role of the character Frances.

Normal People has been the most watched show on BBC Three ever, with more than 23 million downloads globally and over 6.75 million devices watching the first episode.

A source said: “The BBC's role is to inform, educate and entertain – and to trot out a bit of blue for the dads when the whole country's going to shit.

COVID LAG'S POO PROTEST IN POLICE VAN

A PRISONER who told cops he was infected with coronavirus smeared himself with SHIT.

Brian McElwain, 45, (left) daubed his own excrement on his chest, face and arms during a 26-mile journey in a cop van.

He carried out the vile act as he was being transported from Livingston police station in West Lothian to a special COVID cell in Falkirk after claiming he was infected.

When he emerged stinking from the vehicle at the end of the journey he refused to take a shower and was locked in a cell still covered in faeces.

Kate Irwin, prosecuting, told Livingston Sheriff Court that McElwain had been photographed by a neighbour in Fauldhouse, West Lothian, with a large knife tucked into the waistband of his trousers on September 3, 2020.

Police were tipped off when he returned to his home in the town the following morning and he was arrested and taken to Livingston police station.

Ms Irwin said: “At about 4pm police officers were requested to transport the accused to the COVID-19 cell at Falkirk police station as he told officers he was suffering from coronavirus.

“While transporting him en route to Falkirk the accused has covered himself in his own faeces.

“At Falkirk police station the accused refused shower facilities and was placed in a cell.”

McElwain, a prisoner at HMP Addiewell, pleaded guilty to having a knife in public and also committing a breach of the peace by covering himself in his own faeces.

McElwain was jailed for 18 months, backdated to September 7, when he was first remanded in custody.

Taylor slams Netflix over 'sexist' joke

TOUCHY Taylor Swift has accused a Netflix show of "degrading" women for featuring a joke she branded "deeply sexist".

The pop star (above) tweeted to criticise the joke, in the season finale of comedy-drama Ginny and Georgia.

In one scene, main characters Ginny Miller and her mother Georgia argued about relationships.

Asked whether she had broken up with her boyfriend, Ginny said: "What do you care? You go through men faster than Taylor Swift."

The line enraged Swift's fans, prompting criticism of the show and its cast members on social media.

Some Swift fans even called for a boycott of the series.

Swift jumped in on the controversy in a tweet, writing: "Hey Ginny & Georgia, 2010 called and it wants its lazy, deeply sexist joke back."

Netflix has not yet commented on the criticism, nor has anyone associated with Ginny and Georgia.

Pontins U-turn after 'traveller blacklist' leak

HOLIDAY firm Pontins has agreed to change its working practices after a whistleblower revealed it was operating a blacklist as part of a system of routine discrimination against "traveller" families.

An investigation by the Equality and Human Rights Commission found that the company had been using the blacklist of mainly Irish surnames as part of a policy of refusing bookings by gypsies and travellers to its holiday parks.

The list was uploaded to the Pontins intranet under the heading "Undesirable Guests", instructing call handlers that people using these names were "unwelcome".

Surnames on the list included Boyle, Delaney, Gallagher, McGinley, McMahon and O'Donnell.

DAVID GINOLA GAVE ME A STIFFY!

Peter Crouch's shock admission

FOOTIE star Peter Crouch has admitted getting a BONER watching Frenchman David Ginola score a volley.

Former Spurs and Liverpool striker Crouch, who scored 22 goals for England, was talking about his time in the Tottenham youth team.

The 6ft 7ins player, who was in the Spurs youth team from 1995 to 1998, said he was "excited" about taking part in a training session with first team players David Ginola, Chris Armstrong and Steffan Iversen when he was a young player.

David Ginola, now 54, had joined Spurs in 1997 for £2.5m and was a key player for the team for three years.

Speaking on his That Peter Crouch Podcast for the BBC, Peter, 40, said: "I remember going up to train with the Tottenham first team quite early on in life."

"After the session finished, David Ginola, Chris Armstrong, Steffan Iversen and myself stayed behind to do some finishing."

"I was so excited by this whole scenario."

Balls

"The coach was ping the balls in, and I was on the edge of the box and we had to have two touches, and we had to keep the ball outside the box and finish."

"I was jogging on the spot ready for the ball to come and I remember David Ginola tapping me on the shoulder and going, 'Why are you moving so much?', and he said, 'Just calm down... go to the back and just watch me'."

"I was like, 'OK', and the ball came in, and instead of having two touches, he just had one and put it in the top corner on the volley from outside the box."

"He walked back to me and gave me like a Gallic shrug... I almost had a bit or an erection."

Podcast co-host Tom Fordyce piped up: "Can you just repeat that phrase?" with Crouchy replying, "I had a bit of an erection," to which Tom replied, "No, not that phrase, the one that David said to you!"

Co-host Chris Stark burst into hysterics as he added: "You had a stiffy!"

Dad-of-four Peter, who is married to model Abbey Clancy, said: "Just watching him hit this volley into the top corner - he told me just to chill out and relax and that I couldn't play if I was that hyped up."

"I can't even tell you about how good he was as a footballer."

Speaking on his podcast last year, Crouch admitted getting boners while being treated by physios.

He said: "I've not had a boner during a match, but when you are getting your leg checked by the physio... I mean, that's a different ball game."

"Your mind can just wander when you are on the physio bed, can't it?"

Appearing on Good Morning Britain, Arg said healthcare experts told him that catching COVID at his weight could prove "fatal".

He said: "Especially since I opened up about how much I weigh recently, I have been speaking regularly to doctors and nurses at Transform Hospital Group. 'They have been giving me advice and are basically saying the size I am at the moment could be fatal'."

"If I was to catch COVID I could be a goner."

Last week, it denied it had required US diplomats to undergo such tests after American media reported some people had complained about the probing procedure.

ARE YOU STUCK IN A SEX RUT?

HALF of couples are stuck in a "sex rut" – where the passion they enjoy is always the same, according to a new survey.

The study found that 85% of couples have a sexual routine that they tend to stick to each week.

More women (58%) than men (46%) moan about being in a sex rut with their partner and long for more adventurous sex.

The most striking sign that you are stuck in a sex rut as a couple is if you ALWAYS have sex in bed and never venture outside, or enjoy passion in, other parts of the house.

The second most common sign is when you have sex on exactly the same day every week – most commonly a Saturday or Sunday.

The third most common sign is that you reminisce about sexual encounters from the past with a previous lover which are more exciting than your current sex life.

The results are revealed in a survey of 2,000 people by IllicitEncounters.com, the UK's leading affairs site.

It found that 54% of couples settled

By GRACE HOOPER news@sundaysport.co.uk into a sex rut where they got into routines that they rarely changed.

The fourth most common sign you are in a sex rut is if you always have sex at the same time on your allotted 'sex day'.

The fifth common sign is if you rarely have spontaneous sex which breaks away from this routine.

The sixth most common sign is if you fantasise about cheating on your partner with someone new.

In seventh place is sex following the same routine of foreplay and intercourse with very little variation.

Desire

The eighth sign that you are stuck in a sex rut is if you give up trying new sex positions.

The ninth sign is if sex lasts exactly the same time each time you make love and 10th place is having sex because it is expected of you as a couple rather than because you really desire it.

IllicitEncounters.com sex and relationship expert Jessica Leoni said: "Who hasn't settled into a sex rut with a partner they have been with for a long time?"

"You both know what you like and you both end up going through the motions once you have been together for a while.

"Lots of people are perfectly happy to be stuck in a sex rut, but many others want more and end up cheating on partners who don't prioritise sex in the same way."

IllicitEncounters.com has seen a 14% rise in activity since lockdown because so many people have become bored with their partners while they have been stuck at home together.

10 SIGNS THAT YOU ARE STUCK IN A SEX RUT

- 1 Sex is always in bed
- 2 You have sex on exactly the same day every week
- 3 You regularly reminisce about sexual encounters from the past – which are more exciting than your current sex life
- 4 Sex is always at the same time
- 5 Sex is never spontaneous
- 6 You fantasise about cheating on your partner with someone more exciting – possibly a friend or a work colleague
- 7 Sex always follows the same pattern of manual foreplay/intercourse with little variation or new pleasures such as oral sex
- 8 You never try new positions
- 9 Sex lasts exactly the same time each time you make love
- 10 You have sex because you are expected to do so as a couple rather than because you really desire it

Pop poppet Miley Cyrus took to Instagram last week to encourage us all to "play with your parts"!

Sideboob

The singer, 28, shared a couple of pictures of herself wearing nothing but a Mötley Crüe tank top – and revealing some sideboob in the process.

And advocating a little self-love, placing her hand between her legs, she wrote: "Play board games. Not mind games and play with your parts. Self sex is safe sex."

MESSAGES

Al Aalak

A MAN twatted his dad with a hammer, strangled him and then returned with a circular saw to chop him into eight bits.

Zaineddin Al Aalak, 24, must spend a minimum 15 years behind bars for the grisly murder and dismemberment of his father.

Before judge David Labrenz sentenced him, Al Aalak told the court he was remorseful for taking his father's life but insisted he was in an altered state of mind.

"I ask God for forgiveness," he said.

"I ask God for healing for myself and others.

"I do not minimise the immense trauma I have caused my mother, my sisters, my brother and society."

person inside his home was an imposter there to kill him.

He struck his father in the head twice with a hammer and repeatedly punched him, knocking him unconscious. He then strangled him.

The following day he got a circular saw from the victim's home in Calgary, Canada, and returned to the crime scene, where he cut the body into eight pieces.

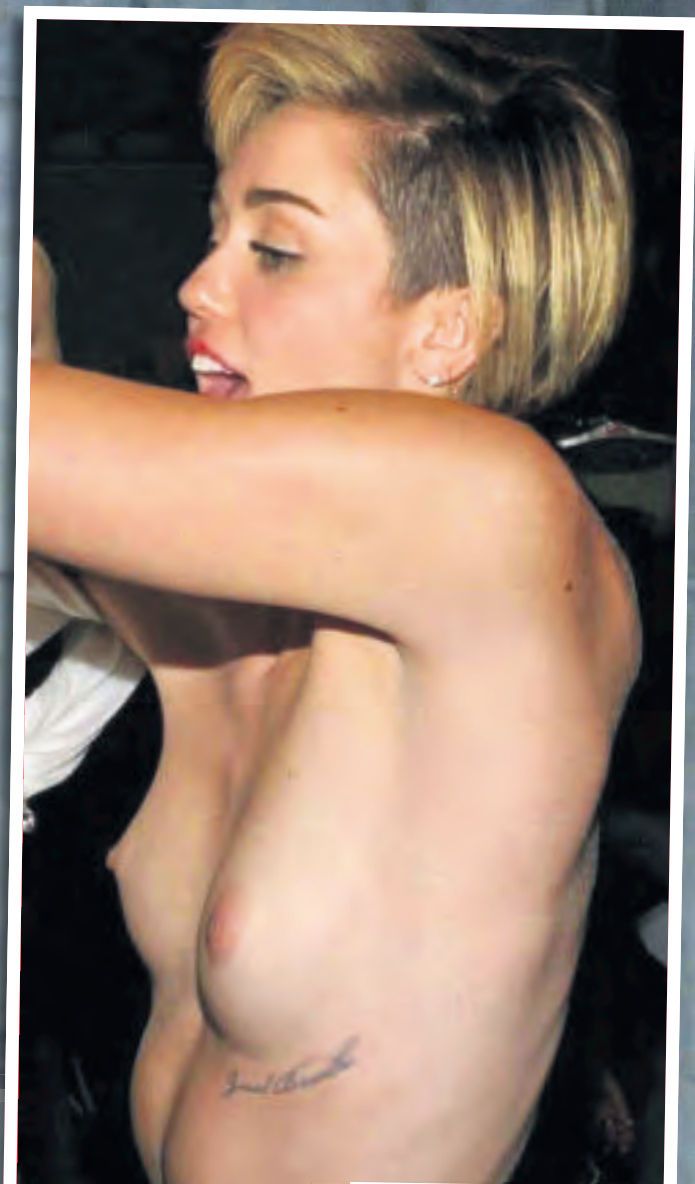

The remains, minus Mohamed Al Aalak's right hand, which his son said he tossed in a rubbish bin, were discovered on July 17, 2017, when a builder came across the dead man's decapitated head at a construction site.

Strangled

Jurors had ruled in December that Al Aalak was not suffering a delusional breakdown when he strangled his father and dismembered the body.

The jury found Al Aalak guilty of second-degree murder and causing an indignity to a body in connection with the killing.

Al Aalak had testified he received telepathic messages from God in the early hours of July 15, 2017, telling him the

DENIED STUDENT FLING:
Alexandra Handwerger

A TEACHER has lost her job after allegedly sending nude pictures of herself to former students.

Alexandra Handwerger, 47, was a teacher at the Hebrew Academy, a private school for Jewish children in Miami Beach, Florida, where tuition costs up to £17,000 a year.

The school was told of the alleged nudes after receiving a tip-off from a group of 18-year-old men who were former students.

The group, who are currently studying in Israel, alleged they had received inappropriate photos from Handwerger through the Snapchat app.

Mum-of-two Handwerger, who was the head of the English department at the Hebrew Academy, was asked by bosses at the school how the students got hold of the pictures.

A police report noted Handwerger said she could not recall how, but that she did admit to taking the shots.

Handwerger was sacked on January 30 despite no charges having been filed against her. Miami Beach Police were informed shortly after.

Labelling the allegations baseless, Handwerger's attorney Jude Faccidomo said: "My client hasn't seen any photographs. I haven't seen any photographs, so I'm not in a position to comment on them."

"There's no criminal allegations here. It's curious that Miami Beach Police are investigating it."

"We take these allegations very seriously and are troubled by how they have materialised."

Salacious

"This issue was brought to the school's attention through gossip and innuendo. The report itself references false emails and second hand sources."

"Unfortunately, it seems the salacious nature of the allegation has given way to favouring rumour over substance."

School administrators had claimed Handwerger was possibly involved with a former student around one year ago – but both denied the allegations when confronted.

Uni students hit by flesh-eating spiders

A UNI library was closed after flesh-eating SPIDERS were found in the basement!

The Mediterranean recluse spiders – whose bites can cause skin irritation or even tissue death – were spotted in the Shapiro Undergraduate Library on the University of Michigan Ann Arbor campus.

The library was closed on Sunday and Monday.

"We apologise for the inconvenience to the university community," university spokeswoman Kim Broekhuizen said.

The spiders were not in a public area of the library and uni professor Anne Danielson-Francois said they do not pose much danger unless humans come into close contact with them.

COW SHAG HUBBY HANGED HIMSELF

A MAN caught balls-deep in a cow was so ashamed he hanged himself in front of his wife.

Senzeni Sibanda was stunned when she caught husband Joseph Tshuma having sex with the startled bovine in Binga, Zimbabwe.

While in the cowshed, he allegedly tied one of the cows to a pole and committed bestiality.

But his wife had decided to follow him to the shed to check on a bull that had been sick the previous day.

She almost collapsed after seeing her husband sexually abusing the animal.

Tshuma then removed the rope tied to the cow and hanged himself while his wife watched in disbelief.

Inspector Glory Banda said: "I can confirm the sudden death of Joseph Tshuma, from Kamwindi Village in Lusulu. No foul play was suspected."

VICTIM: The cow's identity is not being revealed for legal reasons

RED HOT: Rosamund with Johnny English star Rowan Atkinson

ROSAMUND Pike has hit out at body airbrushing after her boobs were altered using space age technology to make them appear bigger on a film poster.

The actress, 42, warned that 'body-tuning' in photographs is causing people to lose their 'grip' on what their bodies really look like.

The British star said as well as being given a larger cleavage for the Johnny English Reborn poster, her eye colour was changed for another ad to promote the film Radioactive.

"For the poster for Johnny English, my breasts were augmented," she said on the Kelly Clarkson Show.

"In the poster for the character shot, I've got a really impressive chest. Which I don't have."

Plunging

For Radioactive, in which she played Polish physicist Marie Curie, she said a decision was made to make her eyes brown in the poster.

She said: "There's probably countless times where our image is doctored and we don't notice it."

"Because I think we're all losing our grip on what we really look like."

Rosamund, who played MI7 behavioural psychologist Kate Sumner in Johnny English, was so irked by her photoshopped image that she successfully had the poster removed.

Promotional material for Johnny English Reborn showed her wearing a figure-hugging red dress with a plunging neckline as she posed alongside lead actor Rowan Atkinson.

FAKING DISGRACE: Rosamund says her real boobs 'are not impressive'

Naked woman in busy road was 'yelling gibberish'

COPS responded to reports of a naked woman running down a busy road "yelling gibberish".

A witness told police he followed the woman into the car park of a trucking company but then lost sight of her.

Officers found Armonique Jefferson (above) in the cab of a running semi-truck, trying to put it in gear.

She ignored commands to put her hands behind her back and fought to keep police from placing handcuffs on her.

She got out of the truck and ran but was caught by officers.

She continued to struggle but was eventually taken into custody to the Wichita County Jail in Burkburnett, Texas.

During the inmate intake screening, Jefferson kicked a detention officer in the bollocks.

She was charged with resisting arrest, search or transport, evading arrest detention and assaulting a public servant.

Half Generation Z lust for both sexes

ONLY half of young people in the UK are exclusively attracted to the opposite sex, new research has revealed.

Research group Ipsos Mori found 50 per cent of 18 to 24-year-olds – known as Generation Z – are "only attracted to those of the opposite sex".

But the study of 1,127 Brits found that the proportion of people who are only attracted to the opposite sex increased with age.

Celebrities like Miley Cyrus, Cara Delevingne, Lili Reinhart and Willow Smith have revealed they are attracted to both sexes in recent years.

Psychologists believe the study – which found similar results in the US – shows a generational shift in how young people view sexuality.

NOW 'CAT IN THE HAT' IS RACIST!

PUT down that Cat In The Hat book – because it's RACIST!

So say prodnase school bosses who say that books by the famed author Dr. Seuss contain "racial undertones" that are not suitable for "culturally responsive" learning.

Loudoun County Public Schools in Washington DC ordered its teachers to avoid Dr. Seuss after a study said the author's work is filled with "orientalism, anti-Blackness and white supremacy".

The district stated on Facebook: "Research in recent years has revealed strong racial undertones in many books written/illustrated by Dr. Seuss.

The Grinchy move comes in response to an article in Learning for Justice, the educational arm of the Southern Poverty Law Center.

The article, "It's Time to Talk About Dr. Seuss", cited a St. Catherine University study that found only two per cent of Seuss's human characters were people of colour and most of them "exhibited behaviours and appearances that align with harmful and stereotypical Orientalist tropes."

The rest of the non-white characters "align with the theme of anti-Blackness," according to Learning for Justice.

The article even blasts the message of tolerance in Seuss's series of books about 'The Sneetches' – where plain-bellied animals and star-bellied animals learn to accept one another. The story "promotes a race-neutral approach,"

THE HUNT FOR THE BOSTON BOMBERS

CARNAGE: Bomb explodes in the crowd as runners cross the finish line during the 117th Boston Marathon

THE backpacks had been stuffed with ball bearings and nails, which sprayed outward – tearing the flesh from nearby spectators.

Fourteen people would lose limbs to the bombs.

Jeff Bauman thought something had gone wrong with a firework, since the blast had blown him off his feet.

Then he looked down at what had become of his legs.

Celeste Corcoran, who was at the finish line to watch her sister Carmen complete her first marathon, was knocked to the ground, her legs shredded and both eardrums blown out.

Celeste's 17-year-old daughter Sydney lay on the pavement gravely injured, the femoral artery in her right leg severed by a huge chunk of shrapnel.

Sydney, Celeste and Jeff were all rushed to local hospitals. Sydney didn't know what had happened to her mother, and was unaware she was in the same hospital, Boston Medical Centre, headed for emergency surgery.

Celeste had to sign a piece of paper authorising the removal of the remains of her legs.

"I just looked at the doctor and said, 'Both of my legs?'" she recalled. The doctor said yes. Celeste signed the paper and later added: "All I could think of was that I needed the pain to go away."

Back at the scene of the explosion, Boston Police Commissioner Ed Davis had put a 15-block area under lockdown and asked the FBI for help.

"They know what to look for," said Davis. "Within the first hour, there had already been a piece of the detonating device that had been identified and secured."

That discovery, along with evidence indicating the bombs were made of pressure cookers stuffed with shrapnel, confirmed Davis's suspicion that terrorists had struck.

Investigators were soon inundated with calls and more than 120 analysts and agents at the FBI lab in Virginia were reviewing spectators' mobile phone images.

By Tuesday morning, investigators knew that three people had been killed in the explosion.

Krystle Campbell, 29, a restaurant manager from Medford, Massachusetts, a Boston University graduate student from China named Lu Lingzi, and eight-year-old Martin Richard from Dorchester, Massachusetts, who'd been watching the race with his family.

Faces

By Wednesday morning, less than 48 hours after the blast, Davis said that investigators had "faces".

Two men could be seen wearing baseball caps, hooded sweatshirts under dark jackets, and carrying backpacks. A man in a white baseball cap was seen carrying a backpack over his shoulder.

Davis revealed: "He stopped just about in the middle of the frame of the photo and slid that backpack down on the ground and stood there for a period of time."

The man then made a brief mobile phone call and hung up.

"A very short period of time later you hear the first bomb go off at the marathon finish line farther eastward on Boylston Street," Davis added.

People in the crowd reacted with shock to the

JEFF Bauman was waiting for his girlfriend to cross the finish line of the Boston Marathon on a crisp April afternoon when he saw a young man in a black baseball cap and sunglasses who looked like he didn't belong there.

Minutes later, at 2.49pm on April 15, 2013, two bombs hidden in backpacks exploded within 13 seconds of each other, sending shrapnel tearing through the packed crowd near the marathon's finish line on Boylston Street.

The blasts killed three people and wounded 264 others, including Bauman, and launched a regionwide manhunt that ended more than 100 hours later in a suburban backyard.

Brothers Tamerlan and Dzhokar Tsarnaev were eventually identified. Tamerlan would die during capture...

EVIDENCE: Emptied fireworks from Dzhokar Tsarnaev's backpack, found in a landfill sudden noise, looking to their left to see what was going on.

About 15 to 20 seconds later, the second bomb went off right in front of the camera.

After the photos were shown to the public another avalanche of tips came pouring in.

But then police officer Sean Collier was shot five times and killed as he sat in his patrol car on the Massachusetts Institute of Technology campus in Cambridge.

At the time, with the identity of the assailants unknown, authorities thought the shooting was tied to the armed robbery of a nearby convenience store.

Less than an hour later, officers were asked to be on the lookout for a stolen black Mercedes SUV.

It was then tracked via GPS heading west through Cambridge and into Watertown, a suburb of Boston on the north side of the Charles River about eight miles from the marathon finish line.

At around 1am the vehicle suddenly stopped and the driver stepped out, brandishing a gun.

The driver began walking toward the patrol car and shooting. The officer threw his car into reverse and reported on his radio: "Shots fired!"

For 20 minutes, the cops and the suspects exchanged fire from behind parked cars.

Then, without warning, the SUV's driver made another move, charging down the street firing a gun.

The shooter, who would later be matched to the photo of Suspect 1, had been wounded as he charged at the officer, but kept firing until his gun jammed or was out of ammo.

He threw his weapon at the cop, and turned to run. The officer tackled him in the street and a group of officers held the suspect down and cuffed him.

Then the other suspect got behind the wheel of the SUV.

As he sped away, the fleeing suspect ran over

After 10 seconds they heeded a commanding officer's order to hold their fire and the suspect came out from under the tarp, his hands up.

Dzhokhar Tsarnaev was lit up like a Christmas tree with laser sights. Red dots appeared all over his body as SWAT Team members took aim with their safeties off.

Team members then grabbed Tsarnaev and laid him on nearby grass. They met no resistance as they then handcuffed him and placed him into custody.

The command centre were then alerted by radio: "North Metro SWAT to command. Suspect in custody."

It was 8.42pm, 108 hours after the start of the marathon.

They'd got him.

Dzhokhar was later convicted on 30 charges – including conspiracy and use of a weapon of mass destruction – and sentenced to death.

He is now behind bars at a high-security supermax prison in Florence, Colorado.

Last year, his death sentence was put aside for a review.

SEX KILLER SNARED BY A CAN OF COKE

By SUZIE SHELTON news@sundaysport.co.uk

DNA evidence taken from a can of Coke helped Colorado cops crack a decades-old sex murder case.

Investigators used a relatively new technology – genetic genealogy – to locate the suspect using DNA from family members whose biological information is already on file.

In this instance, the FBI partnered with a company called United Data Connect to trace the DNA on a can taken from the crime scene to a Nebraska man named David Anderson.

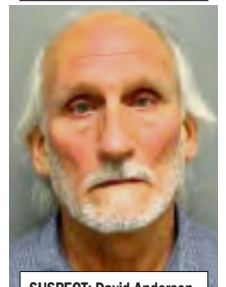

He had lived a quiet life in the 40 years since cops say he murdered Sylvia Quayle in Cherry Hills, Colorado.

In August 1981, Quayle was found dead in her Colorado home after being sexually assaulted and then murdered.

The phone wire had been cut and the screen from Quayle's bathroom window had been removed and thrown into the woods.

VICTIM: Sylvia Quayle

SUSPECT: David Anderson

Brutal

Quayle was found by her father covered in blood, with several broken fingernails and red marks that were "consistent with the shape of fingers," according to a police report.

Police spent decades unsuccessfully trying to piece together the events of that night – and officers say it's a relief to finally receive some clarity on the brutal murder that rocked the small Colorado town.

"Sylvia's sister and family had the quote 'beauty seen is never lost' etched onto her grave marker – a very fitting reminder of the beautiful person she was," CHVPD Police Chief Michelle Tovrea said.

Anderson now faces two counts of first-degree murder.

He will be tried under laws in effect during 1981 – meaning he could be sentenced to life in prison, with a chance of parole after 20 years, should he be convicted.

NAKED CAR BOOZER KICKED COP IN BALLS

A WOMAN who was arrested after reportedly being found drunk and naked in the passenger seat of a car later kicked a cop in the bollocks.

Leslie Gonzalez, 29, was charged with assault on a public servant and public intoxication.

Officers called out early in the morning to Dimplin's Restaurant in Odessa, Florida, found Gonzalez naked and intoxicated in the passenger seat, the arrest affidavit stated.

She had a "strong odour of alcoholic beverage coming from her breath, slurred speech and red glassy bloodshot eyes".

Gonzalez (left) refused to identify herself and was taken to the Ector County Law Enforcement Center for booking.

When she arrived at the jail, Gonzalez reportedly became combative with officers and kicked Cpl. Felipe Cobos in his genitals with her right foot, which caused him severe pain.

HUNT ON THE RUN

the body of Suspect 1, his partner in crime, dragging the body 30ft.

Suspect 1 would later be declared dead from the combined effect of gunshot wounds and blunt force trauma at a local hospital.

Police had fired 200 or more rounds, and while the suspects had exploded a pressure cooker bomb and at least two pipe bombs, only a single gun was found at the scene.

Accounts differ, but the suspects may have fired fewer than 10 rounds, according to police sources.

Fourteen cops injured were in fact hit by "friendly fire".

Fingerprints

The suspect killed in the firefight, Suspect 1, had been identified from fingerprints taken at the hospital as 26-year-old Tamerlan Tsarnaev, a Russian Muslim immigrant of Chechen ethnicity who moved to the US in 2004.

The FBI previously conducted an investigation of Tsarnaev in 2011 and had not found "corroborating information of radicalisation".

It's now understood authorities were warned by the Russians about Tsarnaev's background, but missed several chances to detain him as he went to and from the former Soviet Republic of Dagestan, where he apparently trained in jihad.

The alleged bomber still on the run, Suspect 2, was identified from tips as Tamerlan's 19-year-old brother Dzhokhar, a college student.

A little while later, a resident of Watertown's Franklin Street stepped outside to fix the tarp on his boat.

He put a ladder up to the side of the boat and looked underneath the tarp – and saw "blood, and then more blood".

And then he saw a man, lying next to the engine block.

He hurried back down the ladder and into the house and called 911.

When officers arrived at the scene they stood

How 'ethical' is it to back killers?

LIKE most people, you have probably never read a copy of the Guardian.

But you will have felt its influence.

The woolly-minded liberal rag is the paper of choice for BBC hacks who wake up every morning wondering how they can attack their own country.

Chance to bash the government over a pretty successful vaccine roll-out? Got it.

Chance to bash anyone who believes men are men and women are women? Taken.

And, naturally, all coming to you later in a multitude of BBC News bulletins on screen, on the radio, online.

The Beeb are absolutely obsessed by it.

It's also packed wall-to-wall with utter crap.

Cack

The Groan is easy to laugh at when it carries clickbait cack like "how to make toast" – seriously – if you can get that far before nodding off.

But it's also the media's finger-wagger-in-chief, constantly telling its transexual geography teacher readers how bloody awful the rest of us are.

Especially those – sniff – tabloid papers, and, by extension, those papers' readers.

One of its most moralising contributors over almost all of the last three decades is a bloke called Roy Greenslade – briefly a former Daily Mirror editor, no less.

A man who has always snootily held his head high above the rest of us mere hacks, even after rigging his former paper's Spot the Ball competition so no one could win on the orders of his crooked boss, the late Robert Maxwell.

DEADLY TERROR:

Greenslade loved sticking the boot into the News of the World when it was mired in the phone hacking scandal that – while no one would condone it – never saw anybody DIE because of it.

He even taught up-and-coming hacks on – wait for it – ETHICS at the City University in London.

Or he did – until he quit on Monday after writing a long self-congratulatory essay about how he has been secretly supporting the IRA all throughout his career.

The self-styled "ethical" and pompous Professor – the title he now goes by – even said he supported the "physical force" committed by the murderous republican terrorist group from The Troubles of the 70s to today.

And through all this,

the Groan – which seems to think it pisses rose water and shits out courgette flowers – published him.

Presumably because, like them, he doesn't like the UK very much.

You have to wonder how anyone with any integrity at all could describe the mass, indiscriminate slaughter of innocents as merely dumbed-down "physical force".

It would be very interesting to see Professor Greenslade now explain all that face to face to the families and friends of the victims of Omagh, Enniskillen, Hyde Park, the Brighton bombing, the Docklands bombing, the Birmingham pub bombings, the Arndale Centre bombing in Manchester, the Downing Street mortar attack, countless Northern Ireland atrocities, and so, sadly, on.

In the meantime, Groanidiots, remember that stuff about people in glass houses?

Lust for women made Bible nut chop off balls

A RELIGIOUS nut cut off his bollocks because he feared his lust for women would land him in HELL!

Terheman Anongo said his drastic action was spiritually guided by the teachings in the Bible citing Matthew 18:19 which says "If your eye causes you to sin, gouge it out..."

Anongo (above), who lives in Gboko, Nigeria, had long been trying to deal with his excessive sexual desires.

He sought genital surgery from several professionals, but his request was repeatedly turned down.

Having formerly attended University of Ibadan medical school, he decided to perform the procedure himself.

Anongo had dropped out from medical school in 2007 due to "psychiatric reasons".

He chopped off his right testicle and was determined to remove his left testicle, but excessive bleeding made him stop and seek hospital help.

He was treated and discharged a few days after his admission.

Girl, 14, accused of stabbing her gran to death

A 14-YEAR-OLD girl has been accused of stabbing her grandmother to death. The teen, who can't be identified, faces a first-degree murder charge in the slaying of 65-year-old Cynthia Mosby.

Prosecutors allege the girl stabbed her grandmother multiple times with a kitchen knife at their home in Canton, Michigan.

The grandmother's body was discovered face-down by her son in her bedroom.

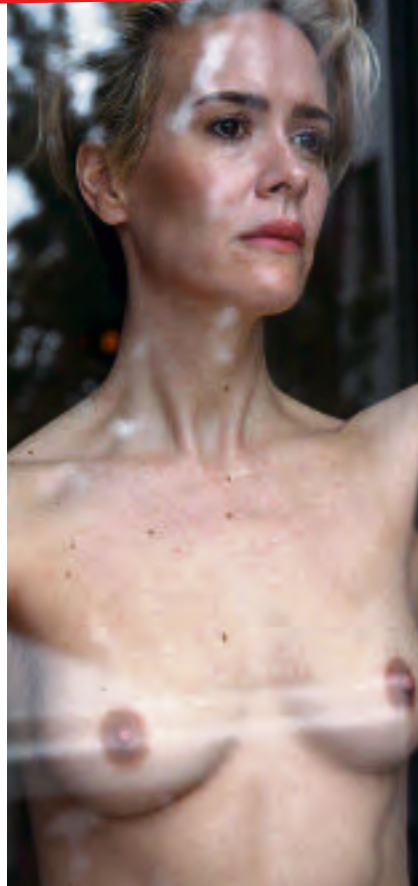

Following the slaying, the teen fled 20 miles away to a motel in Southgate, officials said.

She was found there by authorities the day after the killing.

If the teen is convicted of murder, a judge would be able to decide whether to sentence her as an adult, or a juvenile, or a combination of both.

STARS OF MOVIE AWARDS SHOW REVEAL THEIR GONGS

GOLDEN GLOBES BOOBS!

SARAH PAULSON

CAREY MULLIGAN

AMANDA SEYFRIED

MARGOT ROBBIE

BRIT stars bagged a fair share of Hollywood's Golden Globes showbiz awards this week – without having to leave their houses!

With Tinseltown in shutdown, the glitzy awards bash was mostly held remotely – with even its two hosts presenting from separate cities.

The gongs – often seen as a guide to the more prestigious Oscars – are dished out by showbiz journalists.

Hateful

And while everyone always has an eye on best picture and best actor and actress, there is always something else of interest – like the ladies!

On the virtual red carpet on Sunday night were Brit star Carey Mulligan, 35, who missed out on the best actress award for her role in Promising Young Woman.

American Horror Story regular Sarah Paulson, 46, also narrowly lost out despite her superb showing as the lead role in Ratched – the back story of the hateful psychiatric ward nurse from movie classic One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest.

Lovely Amanda Seyfried, 35, also missed out for her performance in Mank – while Aussie beauty Margot Robbie, 30, wasn't up for an award but still looked a million dollars.

Best of all though – all these leading ladies have bared their award-winning BOOBS!

Best film on the night was the Borat sequel starring our very own Sacha Baron Cohen, while The Crown cleaned up the major TV awards.

NEIGHBOURS BABE MAKES LESBIAN PORN MOVIE

FORMER Neighbours actress Caitlin Stasey has revealed her new career move as a porn director and is set to make short erotic films about "female empowerment".

Caitlin, 30, is directing the steamy films for female-led erotic site Afterglow.

She said the films are a form of positive female acceptance.

Caitlin said: "It's a queer-run and operated company. It's a very cool group of women making some very good stuff."

The actress, best known for playing Rachel Kinski in

Neighbours, was set to direct a number of films in February, but the Covid pandemic has made it a struggle.

She said: "Things have gotten really, really dicey out in L.A. Making a regular film during Covid-19 is tough – making a pornographic film during Covid-19? Virtually impossible."

The Afterglow site was founded last year and is aimed at, and marketed towards, women.

The company, created by Lilly Sparks, is described as being all about pleasuring women and is a "sex positive, pleasure-focused platform".

Caitlin has spoken out previously about her support for female sexuality and body positivity.

The babe has come under fire in the past for showcasing her pubic hair online and backing the #freethenipple campaign.

In 2016, she posted topless pictures on Instagram to protest against the social platform's strict no-nudity rules.

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY

Page

Dear Ashleigh,

RECENTLY I caught my husband boning my sister. I came home early from work with a migraine and heard noises coming from our bedroom.

I couldn't believe my eyes as I watched my fella doing her doggy-style on the bed. They didn't notice me as I looked through a gap in the door.

He was pulling her hair and she was telling him to f**k her even harder as he pounded into her.

She climaxed, then sucked him off until he shot his load all over her face.

They don't know that I am aware of their affair. But to be honest, I don't mind. He's always pestering me for sex and this way he'd leave me alone. Am I weird?

JF, Devon

Ashleigh says...
I'D still be upset with them for going behind your back.

Dear Ashleigh,

MY boyfriend asked me to shag his best mate last week. We're all 19 and were at a party.

I'd had a bit to drink and felt really horny, so I agreed to have him.

First, my fella watched as his mate did me doggy-style. Then my man put his cock in my mouth and shot his load down my throat.

The two of them then switched positions and I sucked off his mate while my boyfriend banged me from behind.

His mate's knob is much bigger than my boyfriend's, it must be at least 10 inches, and I loved sucking and licking it.

I now want to finish with my fella and go with his well-hung mate, but they are very close.

What should I do?

DR, Manchester

Ashleigh says...
FIND someone else, as it's obvious that both of these guys are just using you for sex.

Party nookie got me hooked on swinging

Dear Ashleigh,

ME and the missus went to our first 'swingers' party before lockdown.

It was organised by a bloke from work and I was keen to go as his wife is fit.

When I got there, I couldn't believe my eyes. It was packed with fit fanny aged in their 30s and 40s.

My wife was soon chatted up by a bloke, so I made a move on my pal's wife.

She was busty, blonde and up for it. I soon had her high heels over my shoulders as I pounded into her.

After I'd finished, I went back to the party. On my way I looked into another bedroom and watched my wife being spit-roasted by two fellas.

My eyes were soon drawn to a tasty blonde who looked to be in her late 40s.

She sucked me off while about 20 people watched. I then had her doggy-style and up the arse.

My problem is that sex with my wife now seems boring and I crave the thrill of swinging, but she says it was just a one-off for her.

What should I do?

Campervan threesome spiced up our tour of Oz

Dear Ashleigh,

A YEAR after a fantastic trip around Australia I can't stop thinking about it.

Me and my girlfriend took a campervan and exhausted ourselves in the back of it – and in all sorts of secluded outdoor locations.

One week we met a lovely girl who'd got her own campervan and was parked in the same site as us.

We invited her into our van and we cooked a meal and got stuck into a good few beers before stretching out on the cosy beds.

During the night it got quite cold and we found ourselves cuddling together.

Licking

My girl started kissing her new friend and then sneakily reached out to tickle my cock.

She stripped the girl naked and encouraged me to feel her lovely arse.

She then started slowly licking and touching the babe's nips while exposing her joyous fanny lips for my pleasure.

I got stuck in to supping on her minge while my girl slowly fingered herself.

She asked me to mount her and, as I got hold from behind, my girl spread her pal's legs and had a munch on her fanny.

When I was about to spunk, my girl sensed it. She told me to pull out and shoot my load all over the girl's boobs.

When I'd done it, she licked up every little bit!

It was a really amazing experience and the air in the campervan reeked of sex smells.

Pretty soon I was hard again and her pal gave me a blowjob as my girl used a dildo on herself and her horny friend.

The next day we found a quiet stream at the edge of the site and the girls were soon both naked.

The insatiable pair invited me in between them again and a tit-wank from a couple of eager pairs is something I'll never forget.

We moved on that day but we got her address and number. She was a student from Sydney on her 'Walkabout'.

We're planning on inviting her over here to England when it's allowed.

What do you think?

TB, Nottingham

Dear Ashleigh,

I CAN'T wait until the gyms open again. The first time I went I did some running on the treadmill and then I decided to have a look at the sauna.

When I went in, there was a gorgeous blonde – and she was totally NAKED.

Soon I had an erection, which I tried to hide with a tiny towel. She smiled, picked up the towel and wrapped her mouth around my throbbing cock. I then took her from behind.

We used to meet at the gym three times a week for nookie. But now my wife wants to join! What should I do?

FD, Cambridge

Ashleigh says...

DO it. She's like the wizard of Oz in bed!

Ashleigh says...

TAKE your wife to a different gym.

Cream tease a tasty treat for horny lover

Dear Ashleigh,

I HAD never enjoyed giving blowjobs, but now I can't get enough – thanks to whipped cream.

It began when I went out with my new fella for dinner and I ordered a banana split for dessert.

I was teasing him by eating the banana in a provocative way. I could see he was getting aroused and decided to get him really horny by saying I'd eat anything covered in cream.

He knew what I meant and the next time he called round he brought a can of the squirty stuff.

I invited him to show me what he had on the menu and he dropped his pants. I must say I was very impressed with the size of his banana.

I slipped out of my dress and dropped to my knees. His cock was standing to attention, so I squirted the cream along his length and slipped my lips round it.

Soaking

The cream tasted delicious when mixed with his manly scent and I licked and sucked on it for ages.

Then I got my can of cream and covered his thighs and belly. He was so hot the cream started to melt as I slurped and licked at his burning flesh.

Then I "encouraged" him to give me oral. I spread my thighs and put a little mound of cream on my clitty and told him to enjoy his meal.

For the next 15 minutes or so he licked my soaking pussy and I came hard.

Now it's an essential part of our regular foreplay and I can't imagine giving him a blowjob without it.

DT, Suffolk

Ashleigh says...

SOUNDS brilliant but keep an eye on your weight.

Dear Ashleigh,

I RECENTLY got married and bought a house with my wife.

Our neighbours are very friendly – they're in their early 40s, while me and my wife are 28.

They came round with a couple of bottles of wine and I fancied my neighbour's wife – she's blonde, with a great body.

After we'd had a few I popped upstairs for a piss and as I came out of the bathroom she was there.

Without saying a word she just dropped to her knees, got my cock out and sucked me off.

Just as I exploded, I could hear moaning coming from the living room and I saw my neighbour doing my wife doggy-style.

They told us they're experienced swingers and invited us to a sex party.

There were about 20 couples there. I had sex with four women and my wife had five men.

At one point she had a cock in her mouth, fanny and arse.

But her personality has changed and now she's left me for a bloke she shagged at the sex party.

I'm devastated. How can I win her back?

SR, Essex

Ashleigh says...

TELL her how much you love her, but I suspect your wife wants to keep swinging.

#MY SEX FANTASY

WEARING a mask for COVID has made me feel a bit sexy...

I know that sounds a bit weird but I've been fantasising about anonymous sex.

When I make myself orgasm I even think about being blindfolded and a stranger whose face I haven't seen having sex with me – so naughty!

I've also been watching glory hole porn. I get so turned on by the idea of being really slutty and sucking off random men!

Basque

I'm not sure how far I would explore these new desires, it may be one best left as a fantasy!

Truth be told, I've always fancied going to a high-class sex party where people wear masquerade masks – just like in the film Eyes Wide Shut.

That's super hot and I'd definitely give that a go! I'd love to dress up real sexy in a basque and stockings.

I'm single and lockdown has been tough. I haven't been intimate with a bloke for months.

I think when restrictions ease there is going to be a lot of very horny people around and it's going to be truly amazing!

SHE'S more than enough to give any red-blooded bloke the raging horn.

But it's WOMEN who make Eve Angel purr – as the bisexual beauty craves girl-on-girl action between the sheets!

Eve, 31, who has all-natural 34C boobs, told Midweek Sport: "Of course I like having sex with men, but I have squirty orgasms with women."

"I think it's because a girl knows exactly what to do for another girl – how softly to lick, how to stroke the nipples, and how to use fingers."

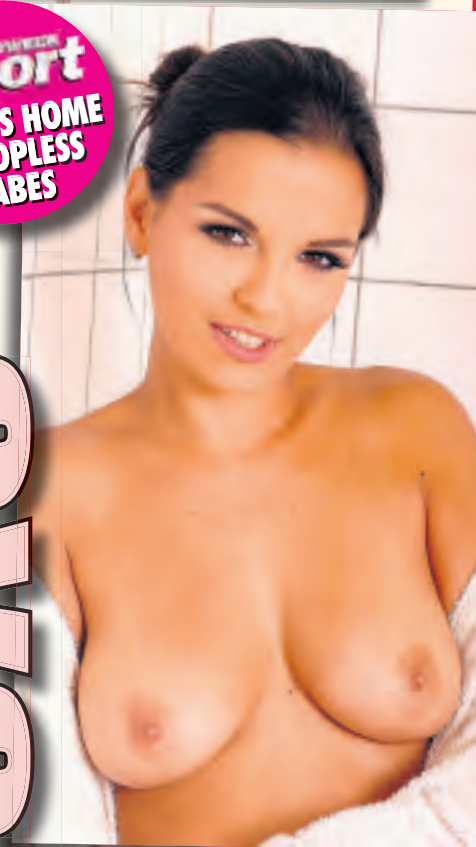

Pert Eve, who originally hails from Budapest in Hungary but now lives in west London, has put her money where her mouth is, too.

She's starred in X-rated lesbo flicks like Inside Peaches, No Boys Here and the classic Oof! That's a Big Dildo For Anal, Madame.

IT'S finally time to say goodbye to the creepy Crawleys of Downton Abbey and hello to the horny hotties of buxom Bottomley Manor!

For all you red-blooded fellas who love your porn but are bored to tears by dull Downton Abbey this is your lucky day.

Released last week, the UK's most highly anticipated adult movie is available exclusively through the Sport's adult partner Private Shops and, for a limited time they're offering readers another £5 OFF the already low, low price.

Down On Abby is a big budget, full length adult masterpiece starring porn legend Ben Dover and a cast of the hottest adult stars around. It will transport you to Bottomley Manor, home to the Lord Grabhem (played by Ben Dover), his wife (and 2014 AVN nominee) Jasmine Jae, and their two young promiscuous step-daughters, Abby and Fanny.

The Grabhems have invited the Stiffies to dinner and their staff, led by butler Small*** and footman Master Bates, hurriedly prepare to receive their honoured guests.

But during preparations some members of staff have their own ideas of how to make the night go with a bang! As dinner approaches it seems everyone's got more than fancy nosh on their minds. Mind you, there is plenty of nosh as well as lots of other filth that will even cause a crease in Carson's keks.

We see plenty of R18 DVDs at the Sport but this one is really something special and one you MUST not miss!

This future classic stars Ava Dalush as Missy, Cathy Heaven as Lucy, Emma Leigh as Betty, Jasmine Jae as Lady Wanda Grabhem, Jasmine James as Fanny Grabhem, Jess West as Lady Stiffie, Lexi Lowe as Abby Grabhem, Ben Dover as Lord Will Grabhem, Big Bad Dave as Smithers and Clarke Kent as Master Bates.

REBEKAH

DELIVERY driver Kyle Martin braved the treacherous conditions as the second Beast from the East swept in last month – and to cheer him up, he wanted a snap of glamour legend Rebekah.

Kyle, 47, went out in the cold to deliver food for a UK supermarket and wants a reward with a sexy snap of Birmingham beauty Rebekah.

He said: "I braved all sorts in that storm and snow. It was bloody awful, but work needed to be done."

"I honestly feel like I deserve a photo of Rebekah in Show Me The Honey – a glimpse of her 34C boobs would warm my cockles right up."

CHLOE BODIMEADE

The 34-year-old grafter, from Stockport, wrote in wanting a photo of topless stunna Chloe, from Bristol.

Daniel said: "I work hard all week and even weekends, but I always make sure I buy the Sport three times a week."

"My favourite glamour girl is Chloe, so please could I have a photo of her flashing her 32D boobs to keep me motivated. Thanks!"

KIRA QUEEN

FITNESS instructor Louis Cox says there's only one woman he wants to give a personal workout to and it's busty beauty Kira Queen.

Louis, 31, trains a number of clients at a gym in Bangor, Wales, but he says he'd clear his busy schedule to train pretty Kira, from Moscow.

He said: "There's loads of fit girls in the gym but there's no girl that looks like Kira – she's got everything."

"To see her squatting in the gym and those 34D norks in a tight little gym top would be a dream – I'd even squeeze some extra activities in too."

BIG LOSS:
Barnes

Bren can only patch up his Foxes crocks

By JOHN ANTHONY

BRENDAN Rodgers admits he's keeping the walking wounded going as Leicester's toll mounts up.

The Foxes' top-four bid has been rocked by a long-term injury to Harvey Barnes. He joins the likes of James Maddison and James Justin on the sidelines as the club's relatively small squad is stretched.

Other first-teamers are playing with knocks to keep the show on the road. Jonny Evans and Jamie Vardy both went through the pain barrier in the weekend defeat against Arsenal.

And that situation won't be changing any time soon.

Barnes may be out for a couple of months as his knee issue needs an operation.

Rodgers said: "We're hopeful he will go in for surgery."

"Part of the patella has separated in the knee."

"That's come away so that's a repair job."

Working

"Hopefully he can be back in six weeks. It's much better news than what it could have been, especially with the likes of JJ and what he had."

"Hopefully he's close to playing by the six-week mark."

"It's a clean-up of the knee, and then about working his way back."

"Jonny Evans will have a scan to see where that's at."

"Jonny is from the old school, he'll play through anything and everything to help out his team.

"It's been an issue for a few weeks and early in the Arsenal game it was aggravating him to a point where he couldn't continue."

"We'll get a scan on that and then we'll see where he's at."

Vardy was holding his groin throughout the Arsenal game and that may explain why the Foxes were off the pace.

And the striker will be asked to play with the problem again.

Rodgers confirmed: "He had a sharp reaction during the game but nothing more than that."

"He went on and played the game."

"Like all players, the day after, he's a bit stiff."

"But I don't think there's anything more than soreness."

There's been nothing reported from the medical team that says he isn't able to play this week."

BIG BOOST: Fabinho and Jota are fit again for Liverpool

KOP TRIO BACK FOR BLUES CLASH

Alisson, Jota and Fabinho ready to play

LIVERPOOL have been handed a triple fitness boost ahead of their showdown with Chelsea.

The Londoners head to Anfield on Thursday night for a crucial match in the top-four race.

Liverpool have been hit hard by injuries right through the season but could have three key men back to face the Bridge boys.

Slot

Goalkeeper Alisson Becker is likely to be between the sticks after missing the win at Sheffield United after his father died.

He should be joined by fellow Brazil international Fabinho who has been out for the best part of a month.

He is likely to slot in at

By PAUL THOMAS

centre-back in place of Ozan Kabak who has had a hit-and-miss start to life at Anfield after joining from German side Schalke at the end of the January window.

There should also be a place on the bench at least for Diogo Jota.

The Portuguese forward had a brilliant start to his Liverpool career after moving from Wolves last summer.

He knocked in five goals in his opening nine Premier League games.

But he was hit by the Anfield injury curse in early December.

He was set to play some part against the Blades only to come down with an illness on the eve of the match.

Now he's back and Klopp is hopeful he can play a part against Thomas Tuchel's men.

The German said: "Alisson and Fabinho, I am pretty sure they will play."

"With Diogo, he was with us in the hotel, but he got sick overnight and we had to send him home. So it will depend how quickly he recovers, obviously."

"He's trained with the team before and looked really good. I think he will be available but I don't know."

Liverpool can leapfrog Chelsea in the table with a win that could go a long way to secure their place in next season's Champions League.

Midfielder Georginio Wijnaldum believes his side are full of confidence after their Sheffield United win.

The Dutchman said: "It gives us confidence because the last few games we've conceded a lot of goals so that will help us as we look towards Chelsea next."

"I think it's a good thing if you win a lot in a row, but I think this is a good one to stop the losses that we have had before."

"I think this is really good for the team and it gives a good feeling again before the next game and also lifts our confidence."

Slip

Wijnaldum knows the Reds can't afford any more slip-ups given how tight it is at the top of the table.

He added: "We have to put a run together and just hope the teams above us slip."

"We can only control our own performances so we have to look at it game by game, give everything and try to win the games."

Foakes fears another bunsen burner

ON THE TURN: Foakes expects the spinners to be on top again

CRICKET By ANDY MILLOM

BEN Foakes fears India will unleash another huge turning pitch for the final Test of the series.

England struggled to put ball on ball in the third match which ended up being the shortest match since the 1930s.

It ended on the second day with it turning square. Even the Indian players struggled as Joe Root took five wickets for just eight runs.

The fourth Test starts in the same Ahmedabad stadium in the early hours of tomorrow and it looks like another raging bunsen burner.

Wicketkeeper Foakes has had a look at the wicket and doesn't sound too impressed.

Extremities

He said: "I was at training and from the look of it I think it'll be pretty similar."

"We know what we're going to get and I guess they're pushing their conditions to the extremities."

"We know it's going to spin considerably from ball one so it's about trying to find a way to play well in those conditions and understand they're going to be challenging."

Foakes says England can't blame their awful batting display in the last Test on the bad pitch.

And he insists the tourists are capable of securing a 2-2 draw in the series which would be a fantastic result for Root's men.

SPINNERS PARADISE SAYS KEEPER

"The bookies don't give them much chance and make India 4/9 to win the match."

Foakes added: "We are trying to keep a positive, clear mindset because when you're struggling your judgement can get clouded and things can go badly."

"It's about trying to keep a clear mind, stick to the gameplans and be slightly more positive at times if the situation dictates, but trying to come up with a gameplan that potentially works on that surface now we've had experience of what it was like in the last game."

"We're still in a position to draw in India."

"We are in with a chance of a pretty awesome achievement if we win this last one."

"It's going to be difficult knowing the kind of surface we're going to play on but we have just got to be better than we were in the last game."

Foakes had a good game with the gloves given how difficult conditions were. And he admits that he has never played on a pitch that turned so much, so early.

He added: "From playing on the last two pitches I've never seen turn like that."

"They almost feel like day-five pitches from ball one and it's understanding we are going to get out at times and it's making peace with a certain way of getting out if it means we can score runs."

"The last two games have been the hardest pitches I've kept on."

Challenge

"They've been challenging and the last game, I think it was to do with the pink ball, the amount it was skidding on or spun, I'd probably never experienced a wicket like that before."

"So it was a good challenge to keep on and I guess it was one I enjoyed."

"Any time it's done as much as it has been you're always in the game."

"It's just about trying to do as solid a job as possible and trying to impact the game by stealing a wicket or a stumping — that's my goal."

WE ARE G-OWEN TO PLAY BETTER

SIX NATIONS RUGBY

OWEN Farrell says England need a massive kick up the arse before their Six Nations clash with France.

Eddie Jones' men are a full eight points behind Wales after losing their showdown in Cardiff at the weekend.

The referee came in for plenty of stick after some ropery calls at the Principality Stadium but the England captain is not making any excuses.

They take on France next weekend at Twickenham and Farrell is expecting a much stronger effort from his side.

He said: "There's plenty that we can do better. We can only control what we can control and obviously our discipline wasn't the best against Wales."

"There's obviously lots of parts of the game and that was probably a big one. It is the whole team's job to stay disciplined, to make sure that in the game we're looking after each other and we're all on the same page, and we'll look at we can do that better."

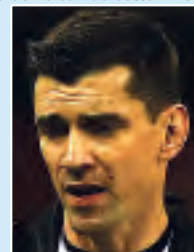

Farrell's mood won't be helped by the merry whistleblower from the Cardiff game reportedly admitting he made a right cock-up of some calls.

French ref Pascal Gauzere was centre of attention for a couple of key decisions — that he now says were wrong.

He told Farrell to talk to his players about too many penalties — only to then wave play on to Wales who scored a try.

There was also a knock-on missed that, according to reports in France, he realises was another mistake.

Gauzere does not have another match to referee in the tournament. He will be assistant for the Ireland v England game which could make for an interesting reunion with the Red Rose players.

The outcome of the Six Nations is up in the air after Scotland v France was called off because of Covid cases in Les Bleus' camp.

Their coach Fabien Galthie left the team bubble and is thought to be "patient zero".

Because of that, Irish legend Brian O'Driscoll thinks the Scots should be awarded a win rather than replaying the game.

He said: "Surely this will result in a 0-28 score line for this weekend's cancelled fixture."

PEP'S TITLE TESTER

We haven't won it yet says City boss

PEP Guardiola says it's too early for Man City fans to start their title celebrations.

The Spaniard has led his team to a big lead at the top of the table.

With games running out, it would take the biggest choke of all-time for City to blow it now.

But Guardiola is not counting his chickens yet and says everyone at the club should feel the same way.

He said: "You have to win. In February or March nobody is champions."

"We don't have time to celebrate."

"There are many games, every three days. We have to rest and think of another one."

"The day of the game, all the managers say when you win you are happy that night but the day after you think of the next one."

City's strong run of form has led plenty of pundits to say they are the best team in Europe at the moment.

They are being hotly tipped to finally end their Champions League hoodoo by lifting the trophy in Istanbul this May.

But Guardiola is adamant that City are not even the best team in England.

He said: "The best team in Europe in the world are Bayern Munich because they won everything."

"In England the champions are Liverpool, so they are the best."
